Collect. Stir up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading

Ezekiel 34:11-17

“For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As a shepherd seeks out his flock when some of his sheep have been scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the fountains, and in all the inhabited places of the country. I will feed them with good pasture, and upon the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on fat pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the crippled, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will watch over; I will feed them in justice. As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, rams and he-goats.”

Psalm

95:1-7

Antiphon Harden not your hearts, as your forebears did in the wilderness.

1. O come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
2. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!
3. For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
4. In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.
5. The sea is his, for he made it; for his hands formed the dry land.
6. O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
7. For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. O that today you would listen to his voice!

For the Epistle Jeremiah 23:5–8

“Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: ‘The LORD is our righteousness.’ Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when men shall no longer say, ‘As the LORD lives who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt,’ but ‘As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.’ Then they shall dwell in their own land.”

Gradual. It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate us. ✠ We make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

Alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia. ✠ Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice, alleluia.

Gospel St. John 6:5–14
Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a multitude was coming to him, Jesus said to Philip, “How are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?” This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him, “Two hundred denarii would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.” One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to him, “There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are they among so many?” Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in the place; so the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus then took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. And when they had eaten their fill, he told his disciples, “Gather up the fragments left over, that nothing may be lost.” So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten. When the people saw the sign which he had done, they said, “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world!”

With vigor

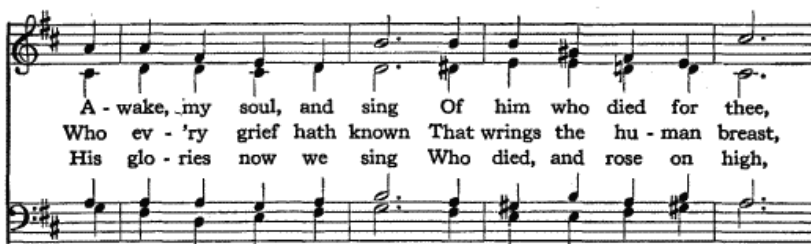

GEORGE J. ELVEY, 1868

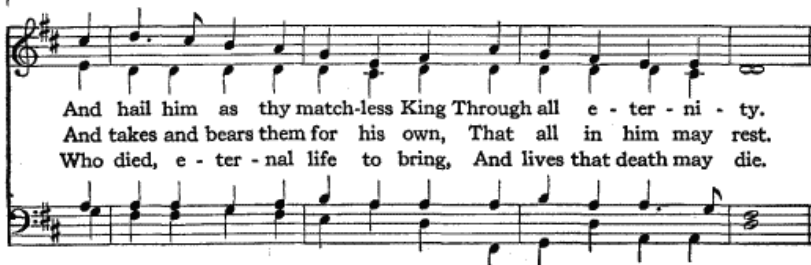

1 Crown him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on his throne;
 2 Crown him the Son of God Be - fore the worlds be - gan,
 3 Crown him the Lord of life, Who tri - umphed o'er the grave,

Hark! how the heav'n - ly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own:
 And ye, who tread where he hath trod, Crown him the Son of man;
 And rose vic - to - rious in the strife For those he came to save;

A - wake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee,
 Who ev - 'ry grief hath known That wrings the hu - man breast,
 His glo - ries now we sing Who died, and rose on high,

And hail him as thy match-less King Through all e - ter - ni - ty.
 And takes and bears them for his own, That all in him may rest.
 Who died, e - ter - nal life to bring, And lives that death may die.

4 Crown him of lords the Lord,
 Who over all doth reign,
 Who once on earth, the incarnate Word,
 For ransomed sinners slain,
 Now lives in realms of light,
 Where saints with angels sing
 Their songs before him day and night,
 Their God, Redeemer, King.

5 Crown him the Lord of heav'n,
 Enthroned in worlds above;
 Crown him the King, to whom is giv'n
 The wondrous name of Love.
 Crown him with many crowns,
 As thrones before him fall,
 Crown him, ye kings, with many crowns,
 For he is King of all.
